Permanent transfer of a Licence to Take and Use Ground water

General information and explanatory notes (retain for future reference)

What are the benefits of transferring a Licence to Take and Use Groundwater?

Transferring groundwater entitlement provides existing licensed groundwater users with the opportunity to maximise the value of their licence by selling their unused entitlement, and provides other groundwater users with the ability to purchase additional entitlement in areas where new entitlement is not available.

What are the rules relating to the permanent transfer of a licence?

Rules have been established to allow the permanent transfer of groundwater entitlement while also ensuring groundwater resources are managed in a sustainable manner.

Groundwater management plans or local management rules apply in areas where Water Supply Protection Areas and Groundwater Management Areas have been established because groundwater has been, or has the potential to be, intensively developed. You are urged to contact G-MW prior to making an application to ensure you have a full understanding of the conditions which apply to the permanent transfer of licence entitlement in your area. For information and maps, please refer to the G-MW website at www.g-mwater.com.au/water-resources/ground-water.

How do I know which trading zone and trading rules apply to my licence?

Your licence document lists the trading zone applicable to your licence. A copy of your licence can be obtained by contacting the Licensing Unit (fees apply). Information relating to trading rules applicable to your licence is available from the g-mw website at www.g-mwater.com.au/water-resources/ground-water/gwpermfactsheets. If you cannot access the internet please contact the Licensing Unit to request a copy of the relevant Fact Sheets by mail or fax.

Where can I get more information about trading opportunities and current prices in my area?

You should visit the G-MW website to obtain information about trading rules and restrictions applicable to your licence before proceeding to locate a buyer or seller for your licence volume. If you are still unsure about the rules you should contact the Licensing Unit to discuss your proposal.

G-MW cannot provide you with information on the current market value of water, however you if you decide to proceed with a transfer, information about market activity and pricing can be obtained from your local water broker. Details of brokers in your area can be located in the Yellow Pages or through advertisements in your local newspaper.

How does G-MW assess an application?

When assessing an application for the permanent transfer of a licence G-MW must consider any impacts on existing authorised users of groundwater and the environment. If this assessment indicates that there is a significant risk of impacting other users or the environment additional information will be required from the applicant. G-MW may require that technical investigations, hydrogeological assessments and/or pumping tests are undertaken to demonstrate that the proposal will not adversely impact upon existing authorised groundwater users and the environment. Completion of this work, if applicable, will be required before the transfer of groundwater entitlement is considered. Please note that the costs of any technical work are paid by the applicant. If you are required to undertake such work you will be notified by G-MW.

What happens when I lodge my application?

After you lodge your application G-MW will notify you in writing that it has been received. The timeframe to complete an assessment will vary depending on the nature of your application. There may be delays if you are required to engage a consultant to conduct a technical assessment in support of your application. If delays are expected you will be notified by G-MW. When the decision has been made to your application you will notified in writing of the outcome, either that the application has been approved or refused. Application fees are not refundable if an application is refused.

Do I need to meet the new Irrigation Development Guideline requirements?

If the licence being transferred will be used for irrigation an Irrigation Development Guideline Assessment will be required if you intend to:

- irrigate land that has never been irrigated before,
- increase the annual use limit on the land in the current licence, or,
- increase the area allowed to be irrigated in the current licence.

You will be contacted if the Irrigation Development Guidelines apply to you.

What volume of water is available to the buyer when a permanent transfer is approved?

The permanent transfer of a licence to take and use water includes:

- (a) Transfer of the licence entitlement for the requested volume from the sellers to the buyer's existing or new licence; and
- (b) transfer of the licence entitlement volume adjusted to reflect any restrictions on the available percentage of licence volume at the time of the approval of the transfer.

Where restrictions have been set (eg. where less than 100% of licence volume is made available in a given season) the licence volume that will be available for the purchaser to use upon approval of the transfer will be adjusted to reflect the available percentage of licence volume at the time of the transfer.

For example if a seller permanently transfers 50ML of their licence where the allocation volume is limited to 50%, the purchaser will receive a 50ML licence with 25ML available for use in the first year.

When can the buyer take and use water under the licence?

The buyer can take and use water upon written confirmation from G-MW that the transfer has been approved. Use may be restricted from time to time in accordance with the conditions of the licence.

Are there ongoing costs associated with having a Licence?

Yes, a Licence to Take and Use Water is subject to annual fixed charges, issued by G-MW in July each year. For specific details about which charges will apply to your licence, please contact the Licensing Unit.
